Kristina Karamo is elected new State Chair

Out of a crowded field of 11 candidates, Kristina Karamo emerged victorious at the Republican Party State Convention on Saturday, February 18th, to become the new State Chair. Along with her running mate for Vice Chair, Malinda Pego, Karamo will lead the MIGOP for the next two years.

Karamo's first and most pressing goal will be to unite the Michigan Republican Party, support all candidates on the GOP ticket and to win future elections.

Kristina desires to expand the Party by recruiting Independents and more conservative-leaning Democrats. She also plans on developing a plan to reach the young people of our state by utilizing youth-based truth and giving them solid reasons to join the Republican Party.

2nd Congressional District

Congratulations to Andrew Sebolt and his team for their victory at the State Convention. Sebolt developed a team of people from each of the 20 counties represented in the newly reorganized second congressional district. Running on an America First platform, each of them easily won the seat for which they were running. If you would like to learn more, go to: MI District 2 Committee on Facebook

A Message from the Mason County Chair:

With Spring right around the corner, our newly elected Executive Committee, made up of 16 members, has been busy setting goals and creating action plans as a means of making our Mason County Republicans organization bigger and better!

I am happy to announce that we will be awarding three $750 scholarships. Please see the full details at the right of this page.

As a means of improving and building communications among members and fellow Americans, I have appointed a Communications Sub-Committee with Pastor Brian Ford leading the way. This newsletter is one method that we have implemented to help improve the flow of information and bridge the gap with conservative-minded people.

We hope you enjoy our newsletter!

Sincerely,

Sheila Genter-Kraus
