

MASON COUNTY REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING
March 10, 2022
AGENDA

Call To Order:

Invocation:

Pledge:

Roll Call-Executive Committee Present:

Absent Excused: Sheriff Kim Cole, Commissioner Gary Castonia, Andrew Kmetz

Approval of Minutes: February 10, 2022. Correction: Lyla indicated in the discussion about the dues, it was her intent to remove the dinner ticket from the dues structure but not to eliminate the sustaining membership. The minutes will be corrected as stated.

Treasurer Report: John

Reports from State Elected officials:

Reports from County Elected Officials:

Report from Chair: Housekeeping

171 membership letters and application/contribution forms were mailed out on 2/28.

Call to County Convention notices mailed out on 3/3.

New sub-committees, appointing chairs, etc. to be forming sometime in late April or early May. For those interested in being involved in one of the new sub-committees, please send me an email at sheilakraus3467@gmail.com

Unfinished Business: Lyla – Presentation Lincoln Day Dinner/Speaker & Location options. Discussion among voting members. Motion & Vote by ballot for location.

Chair-Update on Headquarters' space, informational only, no vote needed at this time.

New Business: Chair - Secretary Resignation, effective 2/28.

Accept nominations for secretary through the end of the year. Motion to elect & Vote required.

Lyla - Possible future Events list.

Kristina Karamo, candidate for SOS, will be coming to Ludington on Saturday, 3/19 at 1:00 pm for a meet and greet. Location: Lakeshore Resource Network, 920 N. Tinkham, Ludington. Mason County Republicans will host.

Public Comments/No Debates: maximum of 3 minutes per person

Jerry Skar, Cathy Ingraham

Added: Lyla requested that the committee approve paying for Senator Ruth Johnson's room.

Adjournment: Motion to Adjourn. Next Executive Committee Meeting April 14th at 6:30 pm, Lakeshore Resource Center, 920 N. Tinkham Ave, Ludington.