

Minutes of the Mason County Republican Party Executive Committee Meeting held on November 18, 2014 at 6:30pm at The Mason County Courthouse in Ludington, MI.

Members Present: Rod Merrill, John Kreinbrink, Paul McCrath, Brad Chandonnet, Hank Wykretowicz, Joyce Wykretowicz, Lyla McClelland, Rosemary DeLoof, John Beckett, Sheriff Kim Cole.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman John Kreinbrink.

The invocation and pledge of allegiance were led by Brad Chandonnet.

October minutes were presented by Secretary Brad Chandonnet.

A brief explanation of current financial reports was given by Treasurer Paul McCrath. It was also noted that BOE reports had been successfully filed and accepted. A motion to approve the reports as presented was raised by Joyce Wykretowicz and seconded by Hank Wykretowicz. The motion was carried.

Chairman John Kreinbrink noted the almost complete success of the November 2014 election results. Rod Merrill noted the effectiveness of using classified advertizing to remind people of the GOP headquarters. It was suggested that advertising be secured much earlier next election. Other suggestions included using the neon open sign and securing a more prominent location.

Lyla McClelland submitted a report on the successful election night party held at the Stearns Motor Inn Ballroom.

Lyla also submitted a Campaign Headquarters report detailing costs, location, results and suggestions for improvement for future headquarters.

Chairman John Kreinbrink explained the basic format of the County Convention that would immediately follow this meeting.

The next meeting will be held on December 16th, 2014 at 6:30pm. Those attending are encouraged to bring a new, unwrapped toy to be donated to the Salvation Army or a similar worthy charity. Holiday treats will be ordered for this Christmas meeting.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was raised by Hank Wykretowicz and seconded by Paul McCrath. The motion was carried and the meeting adjourned at 6:58pm.
